SITUATION

Nynehead is a sought-after village offering a charming rural setting, centred around a picturesque church and village hall. Despite its idyllic countryside position, the village is conveniently located close to Wellington, providing easy access to a comprehensive range of amenities including independent shops, supermarkets, leisure and sporting facilities, and an excellent selection of popular state and independent schools for both primary and secondary education.

The area is well served by excellent transport links, with Junction 26 of the M5 approximately 3.8 miles away, and Taunton, around 8 miles distant, offering a mainline railway station with direct services to London Paddington in under two hours. The surrounding countryside is ideal for outdoor enthusiasts, boasting a network of public footpaths and bridleways, sections of the Grand Western Canal, and attractive walks through woodland and open countryside. The Blackdown, Brendon and Quantock Hills are all within easy reach, further enhancing the appeal of this desirable village location.
