Warwick the historic county town of Warwickshire, is a vibrant desirable town with a wide range of facilities, amenities and excellent transport network by road and rail.

The town offers all day to day facilities, including shops, supermarkets, opticians, doctors, private and state, primary and secondary schools, restaurants, public houses, cafés and the regional hospital.

Transport links include the M40 Motorway leading to Oxford and London to the South and Birmingham to the North. The A46 to the West of the town leads to Stratford-upon-Avon and Cotswolds to the South and Coventry to the North. The mainline railway station in Warwick provides regular services to London Marylebone and Birmingham City centre.

21 Cherry Street has been decorated and presented to an excellent standard, with period colours and finishes. In addition to the charming two-bedroom cottage, within the walled rear garden a detached Studio/Office has an ensuite shower room which could be used as an annexe or guest bedroom.
