Davies Craddock Estates are pleased to present for sale this exceptional four-bedroom detached property, ideally situated on the highly sought-after coastal development of Ffordd Y Meillion, Llanelli, boasting frontline, picturesque views overlooking the prestigious Machynys Golf Course.

This beautifully presented family home offers a thoughtful and versatile layout, opening into a bright and inviting front reception room that perfectly captures the scenic outlook. To the rear, the property unfolds into a spectacular open-plan kitchen and living area, providing a superb social hub for modern family life and entertaining, further complemented by a practical separate utility room and a convenient downstairs cloakroom. Upstairs, the home continues to impress with four bedrooms—two of which feature private en-suite shower rooms—alongside a contemporary family bathroom, with the fourth bedroom perfectly proportioned for its current use as a dedicated home study.

Externally, the property benefits from a private driveway and a neat, paved front garden, while the fully enclosed rear oasis has been meticulously designed for low-maintenance enjoyment, featuring artificial turf, sleek paving, and a raised decked area surrounded by mature trees and shrubs that offer an excellent degree of privacy.

The property enjoys an enviable location just moments from the scenic Millennium Coastal Path, offering miles of traffic-free walking and cycling trails with breathtaking views across the Bury Estuary to the Gower Peninsula. Residents have first-class leisure right on their doorstep, with the Machynys Clubhouse featuring a premium health club, spa, and the popular Fredricks Brasserie just a short stroll away. Everyday convenience is equally well-catered for, with excellent transport links, highly regarded local schooling, and the extensive shopping facilities of Parc Trostre Retail Park all reachable within a few minutes by car.
