This immaculately presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace home has been lovingly restored and renovated by the current owners, balancing period charm with a contemporary finish.

Inside, warm engineered oak flooring leads you into a light-filled through lounge, anchored by a reclaimed decorative Victorian fireplace. The room is rich in character, with cornicing, a ceiling rose and a dual-aspect layout that allows natural light to pour in from both the front box bay window and the dining area.

The space flows seamlessly into a stylish kitchen, finished with chequered tile flooring and thoughtfully designed for modern living. From here, doors open directly onto an expansive north-east-facing rear garden, beautifully tiered to create distinct outdoor areas. A patio sits just beyond the back door, leading onto a lawn and established flower beds, with an upper terrace that catches the evening summer sun.

Upstairs, the primary bedroom is a calm retreat, painted in a soft green and filled with natural light from a box bay window. Two further well-proportioned bedrooms offer versatile accommodation, while the contemporary family bathroom is finished in a soft pink and white palette, with dark grey flooring. There is also exciting potential to extend the property, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The location is exceptional, set on a quiet, non-through road. Just moments from local favourites such as Ruttle & Rowe and a short stroll from the wider amenities of Wood Street, including cafés, independent shops and the popular Wood Street Bakery. Commuting is effortless via Wood Street station, offering direct links into the City and beyond, while frequent bus routes provide easy access to Walthamstow Central.

Striking green spaces surround the area, including Lloyd Park, home to the William Morris Gallery and Deeney's, while the vast natural landscape of Epping Forest nearby offers a rare and remarkable escape within easy reach of London.
