Set within the well regarded village of Gowerton, this four bedroom detached home offers a setting that feels both connected and comfortably established, making it a natural choice for family life. Gowerton has long been favoured for its strong sense of community, its selection of local shops and everyday amenities and its access to respected primary and secondary schools. For those balancing work and home, the village is well placed, with a railway station and the M4 corridor close at hand. Beyond the practicalities, the beauty of the Gower Peninsula lies within easy reach, offering weekends shaped by wide beaches, coastal paths and open countryside. The house itself is arranged to suit both daily routines and occasions when more space is needed. A welcoming hallway leads through to a choice of reception rooms including a sitting room, living room and dining room, each offering flexibility for family living. The kitchen and breakfast room forms a natural hub of the home, flowing through to a conservatory that looks out onto the garden. A ground floor WC completes the layout.

Upstairs, four well proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with the principal bedroom benefiting from its own en suite shower room and a family bathroom. Outside, the frontage is neat and inviting, with a lawn, brick laid driveway and garage. To the rear, the enclosed garden has been arranged with a balance of lawn, patio and decking, creating a setting that works equally well for children at play or relaxed outdoor dining, framed by established planting. A home that combines space, setting and a lifestyle shaped by both community and coastline.
