

CHURCH COTTAGE, TURVILLE

CHURCH COTTAGE

The iconic 'Vicar of Dibley' cottage in the blissful village of Turville

Nestled next to the Church, this Grade II Listed brick and flint cottage was used as the external film location for the Vicar of Dibley. Offering cosy living, this charming 17th Century timber frame cottage has had some updating carried out but would benefit from further renovation.

THE PROPERTY

Church Cottage enjoys a picturesque setting in the heart of Turville, one of the Chilterns' most charming villages. Arranged over two floors, the cottage offers a cosy sitting room with fireplace, an unfitted kitchen, ground-floor bathroom, cellar and two first-floor double bedrooms overlooking the village green towards Cobstone Windmill. The generous rear garden provides parking and a former lean-to car port, while the front approach through the church grounds adds to its historic appeal.

The property offers excellent potential. Turville lies between Henley-on-Thames and Watlington, with excellent pubs nearby, beautiful countryside walks, good local amenities and convenient access to the M40 and London.
