Claridges offers a unique opportunity for discerning purchaser to acquire a period property offering well proportioned accommodation in the centre of this popular village. A real feature lies behind the gates of this property; the enclosed garden of generous proportions planted with mature trees, shrubs and plants. A perfect idyll in the middle of this village.

The accommodation in brief provides an entrance porch, dining room, lounge, beamed ceilings and open fireplace, fitted kitchen, with Aga, and ground floor cloakroom and further utility/storage rooms. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms and a fitted shower room. There is parking for several vehicles, potting shed and a garage.

This bustling village of Mullion is the largest on the Lizard Peninsula which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. It is peppered with picturesque fishing coves, beautiful beaches and many walks can be enjoyed along the south west coastal footpath. Mullion is an active village with many clubs, societies and organisations. Facilities include both primary and comprehensive schools and nursery, 18 hole links golf course, health centre and pharmacy. There is an attractive harbour, which is in the ownership of the National Trust, and two beaches.

More extensive amenities can be found in the nearby market town of Helston which has national stores and a leisure centre with indoor pool. The renowned sailing waters of the Helford River and Falmouth Bay are within easy reach. There is a mainline rail link with regular services to London Paddington at Redruth which is some eighteen miles distant. Newquay Airport is some forty three miles distant where there is a regular service to London Heathrow and other European destinations.
