ABOUT THE HOME

A beautifully presented split-level Victorian maisonette with a south-facing garden, extended into the loft creating impressive living accommodation.

The property is entered via its own front door, there is an entrance hallway and stairs that lead to the first floor landing. To the front of the property is a bedroom/study and an impressive reception room with a bay window allowing natural light to flood into the room. Centrally positioned is a generous double bedroom and a well-appointed family bathroom. To the rear, a high-specification kitchen/dining room provides an excellent entertaining area, with direct access to a mature south-facing garden. The second floor offers two further double bedrooms, including an impressive principal bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a Juliet balcony. A second bathroom, complete with a bath, serves this level.

Waldron Road is located on one of Earlsfield's most sought after residential roads and is within easy reach of Earlsfield Primary School, Earlsfield Mainline Station (0.37 Miles) and Garratt Lane's vast array of amenities.
