A GRADE TWO LISTED TIMBER FRAMED COTTAGE OOZING KERB APPEAL, CHARM AND CHARACTER, WHILST BEING SET IN THIS PROMINENT POSITION, IN FREQUENTLY REQUESTED WIVENHOE

We understand that Beehive Cottage dates back to the mid 1700's and was formerly used as one of 'The Cross' three pubs. The property has undergone renovation and restoration over the years whilst still retaining its listed features, as well as being a modern day to day family home. The features include exposed beams and an Inglenook central fire place being a main focal point.

Wivenhoe is a well known town just outside Colchester, with picturesque walks along the River Colne and Quay. It has excellent Primary schooling, shops, restaurants and a good range of pubs. An important feature is the mainline railway station providing access to Colchester's City centre and onwards to London Liverpool Street for the commuter to central London.

The accommodation consists of a dining room/second reception, living room, conservatory/garden room and kitchen. The first floor landing leads to three bedrooms and a bathroom. There is also a separate WC. Access to a loft room can be found via a staircase from bedroom three. Outside there is a front garden, ample off road parking and a rear garden that also has a timber construction office/studio.

An early appointment to view should be made to discover all the features on offer.
