Musgrove Road, SE14

This bright and spacious flat is arranged over a generous footprint, with high ceilings and large windows throughout. The open-plan lounge and kitchen space is perfect for entertaining, while the rear bedroom offers added privacy with its own ensuite and stunning cityscape views from a second bay window.

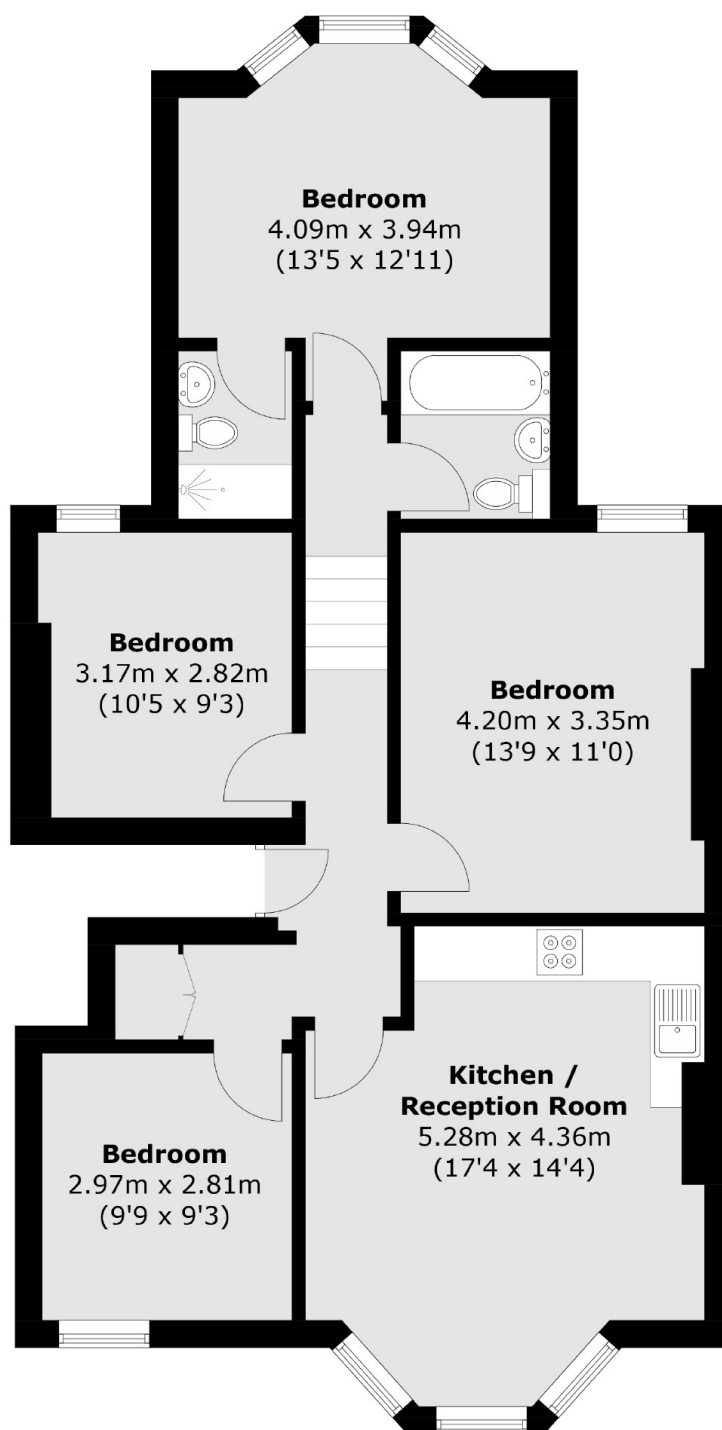

Set on a quiet, tree-lined road in New Cross's prestigious Telegraph Hill, you're just a short walk from Telegraph Hill Park, Goldsmiths University, and an array of independent cafés, local shops, and vibrant community spaces.

Commuters will appreciate easy access to New Cross Gate station (Overground and National Rail), providing swift links to London Bridge.

Whether you're a first-time buyer looking for space and location, a growing household, or an investor wanting to unlock potential through modernisation, this flat offers a rare opportunity to own in one of SE London's most characterful and connected communities.
