Other Important Information: Planning

The Square occupies a prominent and highly convenient position in the heart of Kenilworth town centre, forming part of the town's established prime shopping area. The Square sits alongside the main Warwick Road and Abbey End retail area, which provides an excellent mixture of national names, independent retailers, cafés, restaurants and professional businesses. Warwick District Council identifies Warwick Road and Abbey End as one of the principal shopping areas within the town centre.

The property benefits from a particularly accessible position, with the Abbey End pay-and-display car park only a short walk away. The existing commercial listing for the premises highlights both the public parking in the immediate vicinity and the level of footfall enjoyed by this town-centre position.

The surrounding area has an established mix of retail and commercial occupiers, helping to generate activity throughout the working day. Nearby businesses include Specsavers Opticians and Audiologists - Kenilworth, Forrest Coffee House and the shops and services within Talisman Square. The wider town centre also offers supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, banking and professional services.

Kenilworth itself is extremely well positioned for access to Coventry, Warwick and Leamington Spa, with the A46 providing onward connections towards the M40, M6, M42 and wider Midlands motorway network. Bus services also serve the Abbey End/Clock Tower area, providing convenient access to the town centre.
