A characterful detached family home, offering spacious and well-proportioned accommodation together with off-road parking and a double garage. Set back from the road, the property benefits from a generous multi-car driveway providing ample parking for several vehicles. The main house is lovely and well presented, retaining attractive features including its brick-built exterior, bay windows and generous proportions, providing an excellent family home. The property also benefits from an attached annex offering potential and requiring updating. The annex could be ideal for multi-generational living, providing separate accommodation for family members, or could be rented out, subject to any necessary consents.
