St. Stephen's Place is a quiet, modern cul-de-sac development set just off Huntingdon Road. The area is an excellent location for those looking to make the most of the city centre lifestyle, but with a little more elbow-room than the more densely populated central Victorian streets.

There are wide ranging facilities close to hand in nearby Histon Road and Castle Hill. The A14 and M11 are both within easy reach. The historic centre, University facilities and excellent schooling for all ages are all close by.

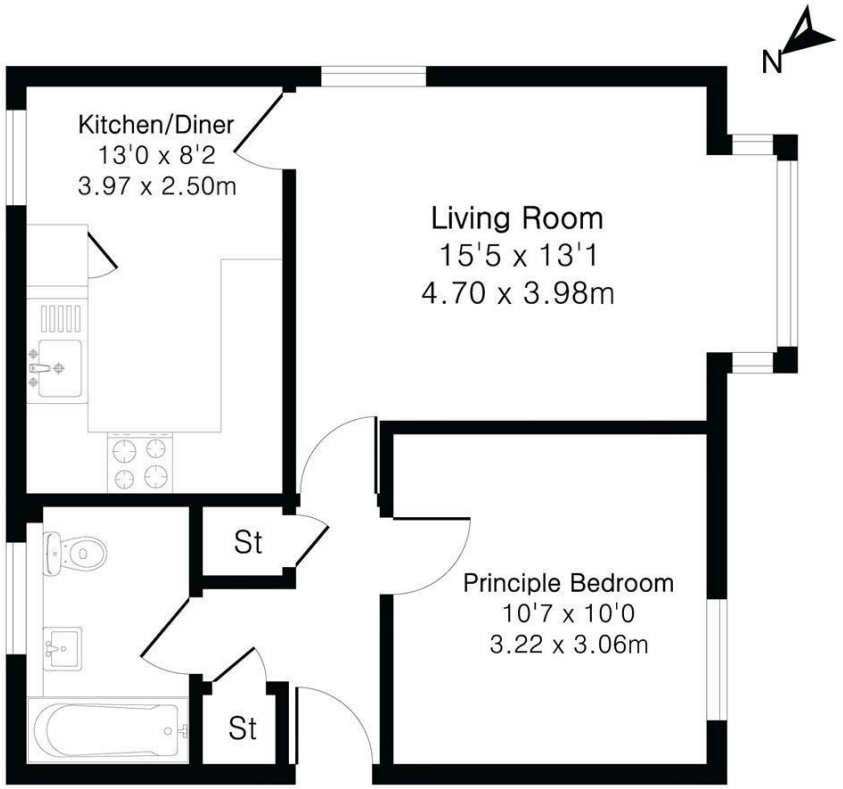

The property is less than a mile from the river, along historic Castle Street and Bridge Street and just over a mile from The Backs.
