SITUATION

The land is situated on a quite no through road in the village of Holford. The village is on the edge of the Quantock Hills and within 2 miles of the coast. The area is renowned for its walks and countryside pursuits with the famous Coleridge Way accessible not far away.

Holford has a pub, hotel with restaurant, church and very active village hall (see village website). More extensive facilities are available in the large village of Nether Stowey 3 miles away. Taunton (14 miles) the County town, gives access to the national rail network (London from 1 hour 40 minutes) and Bridgwater (11 miles) both give access to the M5 and a far wider range of facilities.

DESCRIPTION
