for sale
£190,000

Property Description

Situated in the popular village of Blidworth, Lynnes Close is a modern three-bedroom semi-detached home that is ready to move straight into and offered with no onward chain.

The ground floor features a welcoming lounge that flows seamlessly into the open-plan kitchen and dining area, creating a bright and sociable space ideal for family living and entertaining.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, with fitted wardrobes adding convenience and storage, alongside a contemporary family bathroom.

Externally, the front elevation is set back from the road and accessed via a shared pathway leading to steps up to the front door and side gate. The frontage is finished with loose wood chippings and enclosed by fencing, giving privacy and definition.

To the rear, the garden is arranged across three levels, beginning with a concrete patio, rising to a decked area, and then steps leading up to a lawn complete with a shed and greenhouse. The garden is fully enclosed with fencing and benefits from a locked side gate.

Parking is provided in a communal car park away from the property, with one allocated space available.

This home combines modern finishes with practical features, making it an excellent choice for first-time buyers, families, or investors looking for a property in a sought-after location.
