- Two reception rooms
- Generous garden
- No chain

GUIDE PRICE £180,000 - £190,000. Located on a popular residential street in Rawmarsh, Rockcliffe Road offers far more space than initially meets the eye. This extended three-bedroom semi-detached home has recently been redecorated throughout, providing a clean and neutral canvas that's ready to move into. With no onward chain, it's an opportunity for a wide range of buyers looking for a well-positioned property close to schools, shops, and good transport links.

From the entrance hall, a staircase rises to the first floor, while the ground floor offers two well-proportioned reception areas. The lounge at the front features a good size window, bringing in plenty of natural light and giving the room a sense of comfort and warmth. The separate dining room is at the rear of the property and benefits from French doors leading out to the garden, making it ideal for more sociable meals or simply enjoying the outdoor space during the warmer months.

The kitchen has been fitted with a good range of shaker-style wall and base units, offering ample storage and preparation space. There's an integrated oven, hob and extractor, and enough room to accommodate additional appliances. The layout flows well, making it a practical working kitchen that connects easily to the dining area and garden beyond.

Also on the ground floor is a bathroom, fitted with a white four-piece suite including separate shower cubicle, bath, toilet and sink - an unusual bonus in a property of this size and age, offering convenience for families and visitors alike.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to three well-sized bedrooms. The largest of the three spans the full width of the property and includes an ensuite WC with wash basin, adding a level of comfort that's particularly useful during busy mornings. The remaining two bedrooms are also generous in size, both easily fitting standard bedroom furniture, and would suit children, guests or even a home office.

The exterior of the property has been set up for low-maintenance living. To the front and side is block paving. The rear garden is unexpectedly large and offers a good combination of lawn and patio area, creating a space that works well for both quiet outdoor time and social gatherings.

Rockcliffe Road is well-positioned for access to Rawmarsh's local amenities. Nearby Parkgate Shopping Park offers a wide range of retailers including Morrisons, Asda Living, and Boots, as well as food outlets and other services. Within a short walk or drive, there are several local convenience stores and takeaways. For those commuting, Rotherham Central train station is just over 3 miles away, with regular services to Sheffield, Doncaster and beyond. Bus links are also strong, with routes passing through Rawmarsh connecting the area to neighbouring towns and Rotherham town centre.

Families will appreciate the selection of nearby schools. Rawmarsh Ashwood Primary School and Rawmarsh Thorogate Junior and Infant School are both under a mile away, while Rawmarsh Community School (secondary) is also easily accessible, making this a practical location for households with children. The area has a well-established community feel, and green spaces such as Rosehill Park are within walking distance, offering open areas for walking or outdoor activities.

In summary, this is a property that ticks several boxes. It's larger than many semi-detached homes in the area, thanks to its extended ground floor and spacious garden. The neutral decoration and no-chain status make it an easy transition for a new owner, and the convenient location supports daily life with schools, shops, and transport all within easy reach.
