"What I love most about this house is its spaciousness, offering each individual their own bedroom and ample space for offices, a workout area, and a cinema room. The cinema room doubles as a comfortable and private guest suite, complete with its own shower room, ensuring visitors feel right at home. The house's minimalist design exudes a calm, luxurious vibe, making it feel like a top-tier hotel—only better."

The garden is the perfect size for gatherings, offering just the right amount of outdoor space while requiring minimal maintenance.

Enjoying morning coffee feels like being in a serene forest due to the quiet, private surroundings. The large windows flood the house with natural light, even during the darkest winters.
