Tucked away in an exclusive courtyard setting in the heart of Long Marston, Wheelers Yard is a truly delightful home that offers something refreshingly different. Rich in character and beautifully styled throughout, this is a rare opportunity to own a home that blends period charm with modern comfort in a peaceful village location.

Step inside and you're greeted by a kitchen, lounge and versatile dining area, which would make a perfect second bedroom, with a warm, cottage-style feel. Exposed timber features and thoughtful touches throughout give the space real personality, making it instantly inviting and easy to love.

Upstairs, the impressive vaulted ceiling in the bedroom adds volume and drama, with exposed beams and monkey-tail window handles offering a nod to the building's heritage and craftsmanship. It's a bright and tranquil space.

Outside, the private courtyard garden is a real highlight — beautifully maintained and full of character, it's the perfect place to relax, dine al fresco or enjoy a morning coffee. The property also benefits from a covered carport, providing practical off-street parking.

Whether you're a first-time buyer, a downsizer, or seeking a charming countryside bolt-hole, Wheelers Yard offers a unique blend of character, comfort, and village lifestyle — all just a short distance from local amenities and surrounding countryside walks.

Long Marston is a small village with the majestic All Saints Church, The Queens Head public house and restaurant, a well supported tennis club and cricket club, village hall and recreation ground. The area boasts excellent schooling, including Long Marston C of E primary school and Tring Comprehensive School. The surrounding towns provide a variety of quality shops and restaurants.

Commuters are well served by the excellent transport links locally with both Tring and Cheddington mainline railway stations providing fast and easy access to London Euston, and the A41 bypass linking with the M25
