Property Overview

The layout has been thoughtfully designed to provide both privacy and practicality, allowing clients to access the workspace without passing through the main living areas. The larger treatment room also offers flexibility as a conservatory, studio, or hobby space, with heating and electricity for year-round use. This is a rare opportunity to run a business from home while maintaining a clear separation between work and living space.

Both rooms benefit from heating and fitted sinks, making them immediately functional for wellness, beauty, therapy, or professional use. The second treatment room is particularly impressive — generously sized, filled with natural light, and sun-facing, creating a calm and inviting environment. For buyers not requiring business use, these spaces could easily adapt into hobby rooms, home offices, studios, a gym, or a self-contained annex-style area, offering outstanding flexibility.

Crucially, the dedicated side access provides privacy and independence from the main residence — a rare and highly desirable feature.

Inside the main house, the layout is bright, sociable, and well suited to family life. Accommodation includes a generous lounge, formal dining room, modern kitchen, office, downstairs W.C. with an electric hand dryer and excellent storage, all thoughtfully arranged for everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, the property offers four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a main bedroom with en-suite, alongside a family bathroom. The layout maximises both space and natural light throughout.

Outside, the private rear garden is beautifully maintained, featuring established planting, lawn, and patio areas — ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Additional benefits include parking for two-three vehicles plus a garage, providing everyday convenience and valuable storage.

This is a home that truly balances family living with lifestyle and business flexibility — perfect for growing families, professionals working from home, or buyers seeking a turnkey property with income or multi-use potential.

This is a rare opportunity to run a business from home while maintaining a clear separation between work and living space.

About The Area

Burkeston Close forms part of a quiet residential pocket within the established Kemsley area — a well-connected and family-friendly suburb of Sittingbourne that's particularly popular with those looking for a balanced lifestyle and easy commuter access.

Kemsley offers a strong mix of green open spaces, riverside walks, and community parks while still being incredibly convenient for daily needs. You'll find a range of local amenities including convenience stores, takeaways, schools, and nurseries all within easy reach — ideal for busy households.

Kemsley Station is just a few minutes away on foot, offering direct connections into Sittingbourne mainline station, which in turn provides high-speed services to London Victoria and St Pancras International — making this a solid choice for commuters and city workers. The A249/M2 junction is also nearby, providing fast access to the Kent coast, Medway towns, and beyond.

The area is served by several well-regarded primary schools and academies, while Sittingbourne town centre — just over a mile away — offers a growing choice of supermarkets, restaurants, gyms, and retail options, including the popular Forum Shopping Centre and leisure complex.

Whether you're upsizing, starting a family, or looking for more space to grow into, Kemsley's mix of suburban ease and green space continues to make it one of Sittingbourne's most sought-after micro-locations.
