LOCATION

Crewe is a well-established Cheshire town with a fascinating railway heritage and an increasingly diverse range of amenities, making it a popular choice for residents, commuters and those looking for convenient access to the wider North West. The town offers a good selection of shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, pubs and leisure facilities, together with a number of parks and open spaces.

The town's railway station is one of its major advantages. Crewe is an important interchange on the national rail network, with regular services providing connections to destinations across England and Wales. The station offers extensive facilities including car parking, cycle storage and step-free access.

Crewe also benefits from its proximity to a number of attractive Cheshire towns and villages. Nantwich, with its historic town centre, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and regular markets and events, is particularly close by, while Sandbach, Knutsford, Alderley Edge and Wilmslow are all within convenient travelling distance. The surrounding Cheshire countryside provides numerous opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying the area's rural landscape.

For those commuting further afield, Crewe's location provides excellent access towards Chester, Manchester, Stoke-on-Trent and Birmingham, while the railway network offers particularly useful connections for commuters and leisure travel. The town's transport links are complemented by an extensive local bus network serving surrounding communities and employment areas.

Crewe itself has a lively and evolving town centre, with the recently developed Market Hall offering independent businesses and food outlets, alongside the historic Lyceum Theatre and a growing selection of cafés, bars, restaurants and cultural attractions.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted to be instructed to market 34 Minshull New Road on an Assured Periodic Tenancy.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall leading into the living room, providing a comfortable principal reception space. To the rear is a separate dining room, which in turn leads through to the kitchen, creating a practical layout for everyday living and entertaining.

To the first floor are two bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from direct access to the bathroom. The second bedroom provides useful additional accommodation and would also lend itself well to use as a home office, dressing room or guest bedroom, subject to the tenant's requirements.

The property occupies a convenient position on Minshull New Road, providing straightforward access to Crewe's town centre, local shops and amenities, while also being well placed for the area's extensive road and rail connections.
