Inside, the property has been thoughtfully updated and presented to a very good standard. The property is entered via the enclosed porch, which leads into a spacious hallway. The lounge is a particularly inviting space, with a wide picture window that brings in plenty of natural light and captures the horizon views over Mow Cop. A feature fireplace creates a central focal point, complemented by tasteful décor and soft lighting that form a relaxed and homely living area.

The dining kitchen is an excellent sized with a defined dining area and an on trend kitchen offering grey shaker-style units, oak-effect worktops, and quality integrated appliances. From the dining kitchen there are Upvc French doors which lead out onto the landscaped rear gardens.

All three bedrooms are well proportioned and decorated in calm, neutral tones, giving flexibility for a home office or hobby room.

The family bathroom continues the home's well-finish, fitted with a modern suite complete with a rainfall overbath shower.

The rear garden has been designed for ease of use as well as enjoyment. A large Indian stone-paved terrace provides a low maintenance area for outdoor dining and relaxation, leading onto a level lawn bordered by established planting. A timber garden room offers a sheltered seating area, making it a great spot to enjoy the garden all year round, together with an adjoining shed.

Conveniently positioned for access to local amenities, countryside walks, and commuter routes, this property presents a reliable, well-presented home that is ready for immediate occupation, offering practical benefits, strong presentation, and long-term efficiency courtesy of the solar panels.
