This beautifully refurbished traditional, Arts and Crafts-style detached home offers a rare blend of original charm and contemporary refinement. Occupying a prime position along the Roman Road accessed via a private, unadopted slip road. Located within walking distance of Shrewsbury town centre close to idyllic river walks, restaurants, cafes, pubs, shops within excellent school catchment and close to practical road links. Viewing is highly recommended by the selling agent.

The moment you step inside, it's clear this is a home that has been both cherished and carefully enhanced. The impressive living room retains much of its Arts and Crafts heritage. Glazed doors lead through to a small, charming sunroom, a delightful spot to enjoy the views of the rear garden across all seasons. The stunning open plan kitchen and dining area is a showstopping space with a striking vaulted ceiling and bi-fold doors that spill out onto the beautifully landscaped rear garden. The kitchen itself is fitted to a high standard, offering extensive storage, integrated appliances, and a large central island. A separate formal dining room or study offers flexibility for remote working or more intimate gatherings, while a modern ground floor shower room adds superb convenience for visiting guests or older family members.

Upstairs, a generous landing leads to four well proportioned bedrooms, each with its own outlook and character. The family bathroom is presented in a timeless style, maintaining the property's balance of traditional elegance and modern features.

Outside, is the beautifully maintained private rear garden, offering mature planting, shaped lawns, and a sheltered terrace ideal for al fresco dining – a true highlight of the home. Further benefits include a useful storage garage, a traditional driveway with ample parking, and access via a private slip road, which ensures a sense of exclusivity and privacy rarely found in such a central location.
