This charming and characterful three-bedroom terraced cottage is beautifully presented throughout and set in a quiet, peaceful residential area. The kitchen offers a stylish and practical space, while the bright and airy lounge creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere. A lovely window seat adds a touch of charm and makes the most of the natural light. The property has been extremely well kept throughout, offering a move-in ready home with tasteful décor and a comfortable feel in every room. Outside, the rear garden provides a private spot to relax, complete with a delightful summer house — ideal for working from home, unwinding, or entertaining during the warmer months. Its excellent location places you just a short walk from Christchurch town centre, with a great selection of shops, cafes, and other amenities close by. It's also within the catchment area for several well-regarded schools, making it a strong choice for families. Combining period charm with modern comforts, this lovely three-bedroom home offers a relaxed lifestyle in a highly sought-after area. Perfect for first-time buyers, families, or anyone looking for a smart buy-to-let investment. Early viewing is highly recommended.
