DESCRIPTION

This extraordinary four-bedroom, two-bathroom converted church in the picturesque semi-rural village of Brynteg offers a truly unique opportunity to own a remarkable piece of local history. Originally built in 1894 and now known as Hare House, this Grade II listed residence retains an abundance of its original ecclesiastical features — from magnificent stained-glass windows and the authentic altar to the pulpit, font, and original bell with pull rope. Blending historic grandeur with contemporary comfort, this conversion offers a rare balance of character, craftsmanship, and modern living. A generously sized rear garden, complete with cellar access, further enhances this one-of-a-kind home. Situated just two miles from Wrexham city centre, Brynteg provides a peaceful village atmosphere with convenient access to local amenities, schools, and transport links

LOCATION

Brynteg is a charming semi-rural village located approximately two miles north of Wrexham city centre. Surrounded by scenic countryside, the area offers a peaceful community atmosphere with local amenities including a village shop, pub, primary school, and transport links to Wrexham and Mold. Its location makes it ideal for those seeking tranquil village living with easy access to the city's broader range of shops, restaurants, and services.

ENTRANCE PORCH

6'4 x 4'10

A large arched timber door opens into a welcoming porch featuring two exquisite stained-glass windows and tiled flooring, leading into the main living area.

OPEN-PLAN LIVING/DINING ROOM / KITCHEN

4'8'11 x 23'9

An awe-inspiring open-plan space incorporating the lounge, dining, and kitchen areas. Highlights include the original font, vaulted beamed ceilings, rood screen, pulpit, and altar. Exposed timber flooring, a log burner, and striking stained-glass windows fill the space with warmth and colour. The area benefits from three skylights, and doors lead to the principal bedroom, bedroom four, and the downstairs cloakroom.

KITCHEN AREA

The kitchen blends seamlessly into the main living space, featuring contemporary wall, base, and drawer units complemented by granite worktops with an inset sink, mixer tap, and water purifier. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, four-ring hob, and stainless-steel extractor fan. Plumbing is available for a washing machine, while the original timber altar adds a distinctive historical focal point.

PRINCIPAL BEDROOM

17'0 x 10'1

Accessed through the original rood screen, this impressive main bedroom showcases bespoke furnishings crafted from original pews. A magnificent stained-glass window with a stone surround forms the centrepiece, complemented by vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and original marble flooring. Three arched windows provide an outlook into the main hall. A timber arch door leads to the en-suite.

EN-SUITE

8'3 x 8'8

A stylishly appointed en-suite featuring a low-level WC, wash basin, and bath with thermostatic shower overhead. Finished with tiled flooring and part-tiled walls.

DOWNSTAIRS CLOAKROOM / WC

Conveniently positioned off the main living area, this cloakroom includes a wash basin with storage beneath and exposed wood flooring. A separate adjoining room houses a concealed-cistern WC.

MEZZANINE LEVEL

A staircase rises to a gallery landing overlooking the main living area, complete with glass balustrade and carpeted flooring. Doors lead to two bedrooms and a shower room.

BEDROOM FOUR

12'2 x 9'9

A versatile room currently used as a bedroom, with a rear double-glazed window, fitted carpet, and a cupboard housing the 'Worcester' gas combination boiler.

BEDROOM TWO

10'0 x 9'4

Featuring a vaulted beamed ceiling, skylight, and carpeted flooring.

BEDROOM THREE

9'11 x 9'2

Also benefitting from a beamed ceiling, skylight, and carpeted flooring.

SHOWER ROOM

9'11 x 3'9

Fitted with a low-level WC, circular wash basin with vanity unit, and a fully tiled shower enclosure. Finished with tile-effect flooring and a beamed ceiling.

EXTERNALLY

A driveway to the front provides convenient off-road parking and also comes with a rare asset for a church conversion — a substantial rear garden that has recently been re-seeded and offers excellent potential for landscaping. The grounds were never used for burial and offer an exceptional opportunity to create a tranquil outdoor space. The garden's generous size also lends itself perfectly to being set up for self-sufficient living, such as growing fruit and vegetables. In addition, it provides access to a practical cellar, ideal for storage.
