General Remarks

Commanding magnificent far-reaching views over the valley, this three bedroom detached residence occupies an elevated semi-rural location and benefits from two paddocks and an arena, extending to 2.8 acres and a 3.7 acre section of woodland in a former quarry. The property retains a range of character features and briefly comprises a conservatory, kitchen with “Stanley” which is large enough to be used as a kitchen/breakfast room, if remodelled, spacious lounge/diner with an inglenook fireplace having inset wood-burner, rear hallway, downstairs shower room, utility room, home office, landing, dual aspect main bedroom, two further bedrooms and a contemporary-style bathroom. Within the formal gardens there is also a three box stable-block and a substantial car port.
