Holwell is a picturesque village located just three miles north of Hitchin, combining easy access to the town centre and station with the appeal of beautiful surrounding countryside. From the property, there are delightful views across open countryside and towards St Peter's Church, enhancing the village's tranquil character.

Hitchin is a highly desirable market town, rich in character and charm, offering an excellent range of shopping and recreational facilities. It features specialist shops, a popular weekly market, a wide choice of restaurants, wine bars and cafés, is well known for its nearby lavender fields, and benefits from a selection of well-regarded schools.

Hitchin is well placed for commuters, with fast and frequent rail services to London King's Cross and St Pancras in under 30 minutes, and Cambridge in approximately 40 minutes. The town also benefits from convenient access to Junction 8 of the A1(M) and connections across to the M1.
