Description

An inviting entrance hall welcomes you into the property, leading to two well-proportioned double bedrooms, the main benefiting from bespoke built-in wardrobes, along with a modern family bathroom.

The stylish fitted kitchen is equipped with a range of units and comes complete with built-in Bosch appliances, complemented by attractive wood-effect flooring which continues through into the hallway.

The undoubted feature of this home is the wonderful living room, boasting a striking castle turret-style bay window that floods the room with natural light, along with built-in shelving and a charming character fireplace creating a real focal point full of period charm.

Further benefits include gas central heating throughout and an allocated parking space on the shared driveway.

Situation

This flat is located in "Lower Ashted," close to the local shopping parades on Barnett Wood Lane and Craddocks Parade, which offer everyday shops, cafés, and a pharmacy within walking distance.

Ashted railway station is a short walk away, with direct South Western Railway trains to London Waterloo roughly every half an hour, taking around 39 minutes. Good road links via the A24 and M25 also connect to Epsom, Leatherhead, and both Gatwick and Heathrow airports.

Ashted Common (450 acres of woodland) is close by to the north-west, with Ashted Park (130 acres) a little further east — both offering walking and cycling trails.
