Built by the highly regarded John Laidlaw and Sons of Jedburgh, the property provides generous living spaces, high-quality finishes and versatile facilities ideal for family life, equestrian pursuits or smallholding ventures. Previously, the property was successfully run as a luxury boarding kennels, highlighting its potential for commercial as well as private use, all within a short 10-minute drive of Kelso and with excellent access to Edinburgh and Berwick-upon-Tweed.

Approached via a sweeping driveway and elegant pillared entrance, the home opens into a welcoming reception hall with cloakroom/WC. The dining hall features oak flooring and a bay window framing open views across the gardens and paddocks towards Hume Castle. A formal drawing room with a south-facing bay window, ornate cornicing and a feature stone fireplace with woodburning stove flows seamlessly into a bright garden room with double doors, perfect for year-round use.

The generous kitchen is fitted with a central island, breakfasting area and a range cooker, opening onto a sunken family snug with doors to the rear patio. A rear hallway provides access to a home office, boot room, utility, additional cloakroom/WC and an integral double garage, with a staircase leading to a sixth bedroom or study.

Upstairs, an impressive galleried landing with an elegant seating area enjoys far-reaching views and leads to the luxurious principal suite, featuring a Juliet balcony, walk-in wardrobes and a large en-suite with a bath and shower. Four further generously proportioned double bedrooms, including a guest en-suite, are complemented by a sleek family bathroom, while abundant storage throughout ensures effortless, well-organised family living.

Gardens & Grounds

The grounds are beautifully landscaped, with woodland, a pond and paddocks to the rear and across the road, all enjoying outstanding views over the Borders countryside.

Outbuildings include a large workshop and a substantial barn with four generous stables featuring hatches that allow the horses to look out towards the house. The barn also incorporates a tack room, hay store and multiple internal and external kennels.
