Gwyndy Mawr

Talsarnau | | LL47 6TN

An unmissable opportunity to purchase an outstanding traditional stone residence, with a twist in a sought after semi rural location. This unique detached substantial property also provides commercial accommodation suitable for a number of ventures plus two static caravans in their own private parking and landscaped gardens providing a healthy holiday rental income.

Dating back to 1760 with traditional fireplaces, log burning stoves, exposed stone walling and ceiling beams, the house oozes charm, character and style. It is immaculately presented and has been exceptionally well maintained by the current owner. The house boasts 2 reception rooms, spacious breakfast kitchen and a superb sunny conservatory overlooking the beautiful private landscaped gardens totalling 0.39 acres.

The inclusion of the commercial premises (once a shop) offers new owners a wealth of business opportunities or would simply make the most enviable home office, home gym, games/cinema room or hobby area. With direct access into the house and out to a discrete parking area the flexibility of this space and its opportunities are endless.

In addition there are two static caravans sitting in their own grounds with dedicated parking and a high degree of separation and privacy from the house. These currently provide the owner with a healthy holiday rental income but alternatively are perfect for visiting relatives. This space is ideal for extra gardens, vegetable plots etc.

This really is a special country property offering the lifestyle dream for new owners.

The location itself is also unique, semi rural but easily accessible just a five-minute stroll from the Dwyryd Estuary, designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest, and offering unparalleled access to the natural beauty of the area. Close to the coastal path, rail and bus stops are within walking distance and Harlech and Portmadog just a short drive away.

It would lend itself to a variety of uses including commercial ventures, shop, salon, office, consulting rooms, workshop or artists studio to name just a few.

Alternatively it could be an annex to the house and also has a door to the rear garden. Perfect for popping out from work for a coffee break!

Gwyndy Mawr Gardens and Parking

To the front is courtyard bound by stone walling leading to the oak canopied entrance door. To the side there is plentiful driveway parking for up to 6 cars and private entrance door to the commercial units. Further to the side and away from the house are the static caravans and their gardens and parking.

The garden to the rear of the property is extremely private and beautifully landscaped backing onto open fields. There are block paved patio areas for seating, mature trees and shrubs and rolling lawns. In addition there is a greenhouse, 2 sheds and a log store.

Two Static Caravans with Gardens & Parking

A gate from the side connects to the private gardens and parking for the two static caravans. These are in excellent condition and fully serviced with individual outside space and off road parking for 4 vehicles. Currently providing a holiday rental income (accounts available on request) they are also perfect for overflow guest accommodation.

The easily accessible position close to the Coastal Path, beautiful estuary, Portmeirion, Porthmadog and sandy beaches of Harlech make these caravans the perfect holiday destination. With the halt for the Cambrian Coastal railway line in easy walking distance, guests can park up the cars, kick back and relax.

Alternatively for avid gardeners this space could make a sizeable addition to the existing landscaped garden or provide a perfect location for vegetable, fruit trees etc.

Additional Information

The property dates back to 1760 and is connected to mains electricity, water and drainage. It is fully double glazed with oil fired central heating.

Yns and its Surrounds

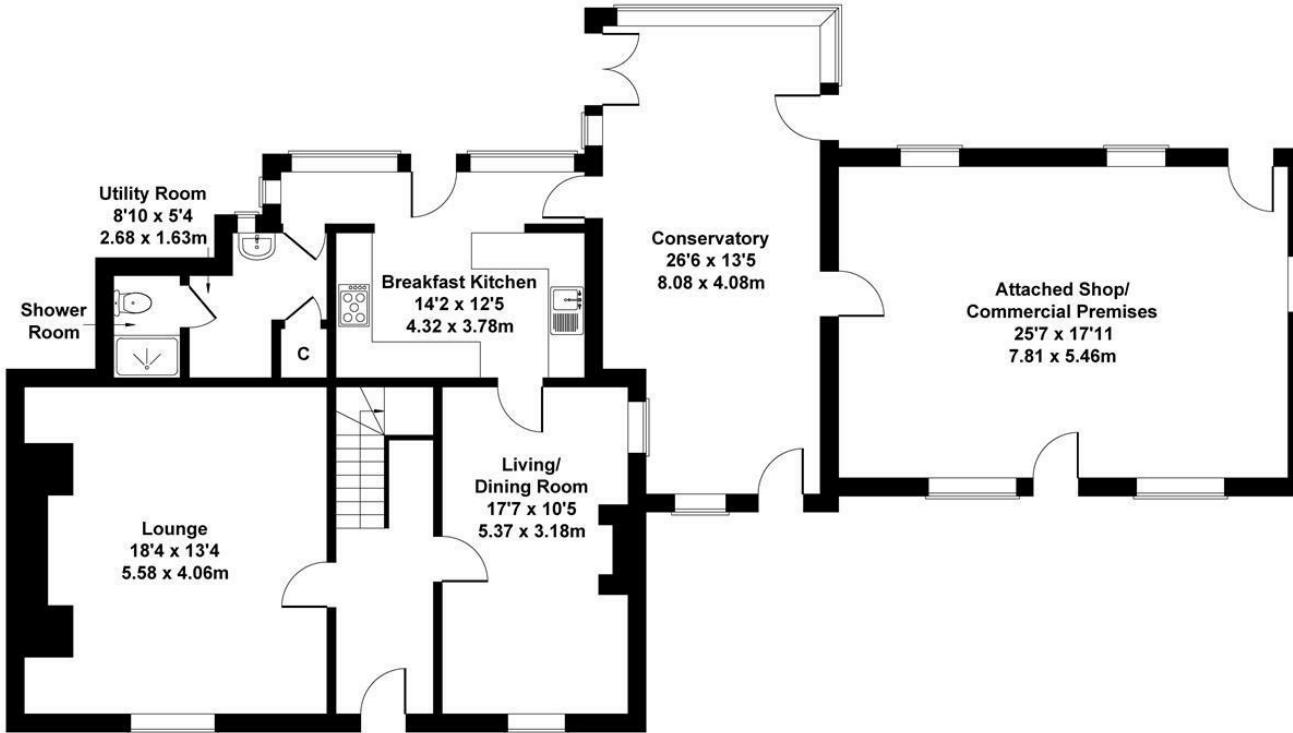

Gwyndy Mawr is located in the idyllic hamlet of Ynys, well known for its beautiful estuary scenery and wildlife, including the views across the Dwyryd and Afon Glaslyn Estuary towards Portmeirion. It is just 1.5 miles from the pretty village of Talsarnau with its local pub, and only three miles from the historic castle town of Harlech and close to Porthmadog and all its facilities. Fantastic walking is on the doorstep with the Welsh Coastal Path passing close by, but for the more adventurous it is in close proximity to Blaenau Ffestiniog where you can enjoy all the activities at Llechwedd slate caverns, Zip World Titan (the largest zip zone in Europe), Zip World Caverns and Bounce Below (deep mine zip wires and the largest underground system of trampolines in the world!). For something a little less energetic, the well-known Ffestiniog narrow gauge steam railway is close by and the peaceful and tranquil beach at Harlech, just 3 miles away is one of the best in North Wales and you can often walk for miles along it without meeting a soul.
