No Chain! Tucked within a quiet cul de sac in Rumney, this semi-detached home rests on a generous corner plot and has been extended to the side and rear, creating a notably spacious arrangement of living areas.

The house has been carefully maintained by the same owners for many years, with a series of interlinked reception rooms that offer an easy sense of flow, each space drawing natural light from multiple aspects. The kitchen and dining areas connect directly with the garden, forming a pleasant backdrop for daily life and offering scope for redesign to suit a new owner's tastes. Upstairs, three bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, supported by a family bathroom, fitted storage and a practical layout.

Rumney remains one of Cardiff's most convenient districts, valued for its strong community feel and access to green space. Local shops, cafés and everyday amenities sit within easy reach, as do the walking paths around Rumney Hill Gardens and the open landscapes stretching towards the coast. Well regarded schools including Rumney Primary and St Illtyd's are nearby, making the area particularly appealing for families. Regular bus routes provide swift links into the city centre, while the A48 and M4 corridor are easily accessible for commuting. This property is offered with no onward chain and presents an increasingly rare opportunity to reshape a well loved home in a desirable Cardiff setting.
