Description

A beautifully refurbished three bedroom terraced cottage, situated in the sought-after area of Hawkcombe in the village of Porlock. Having been completely renovated throughout by the current owners, the property combines traditional cottage character with a fresh, modern finish and is presented in excellent condition throughout.

- Located in Hawkcombe
- Recently renovated throughout
- Overlooks allotments with sea views
- Front & rear gardens
- New external windows & doors
- Woodburner
- Modern efficient electric heating

The accommodation includes a main entrance into a welcoming living/dining room featuring a log burner and space for a dining table.

From this room, the property benefits from a newly fitted kitchen with integrated induction hob & cooker, integrated fridge freezer and space for a washing machine or dishwasher. To the rear is a useful garden room/sun room providing additional seating and offering excellent storage and practical accommodation. Double doors open into the rear garden with downstairs cloakroom following off of this room.

There are three well sized bedrooms, two doubles and a single one of which is a charming loft conversion with Velux windows. The family bathroom is finished to a beautiful standard with large walk in shower.

The property further benefits from all-new external windows and doors, providing improved energy efficiency and enhancing the overall appearance of the property. The cottage enjoys gardens to both the front and rear, providing areas for outdoor seating, entertaining and gardening. The rear garden benefits from lovely views across the surrounding allotments, with glimpses of the sea visible in the distance.

Hawkcombe is a particularly attractive setting, surrounded by the beautiful countryside of Exmoor National Park while being within easy reach of the popular coastal village of Porlock and its range of local amenities. This property offers an excellent opportunity to acquire a ready-to-move-into cottage in a picturesque and highly desirable location. On-street parking is available nearby.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998. These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor.
