3 Minoan Drive, Hemel Hempstead HP3 9WA

Guide Price £600,000 - £625,000. Positioned within the ever-desirable Apsley waterside setting and commanding an enviable position directly fronting the iconic Grand Union Canal, this exceptional four double-bedroom, three-bathroom residence offers uninterrupted panoramic views across tranquil waters, mature greenery and the historic towpath beyond. Homes of this nature, combining scale, symmetry and direct canal frontage, are rarely available, particularly when offered with no onward chain.

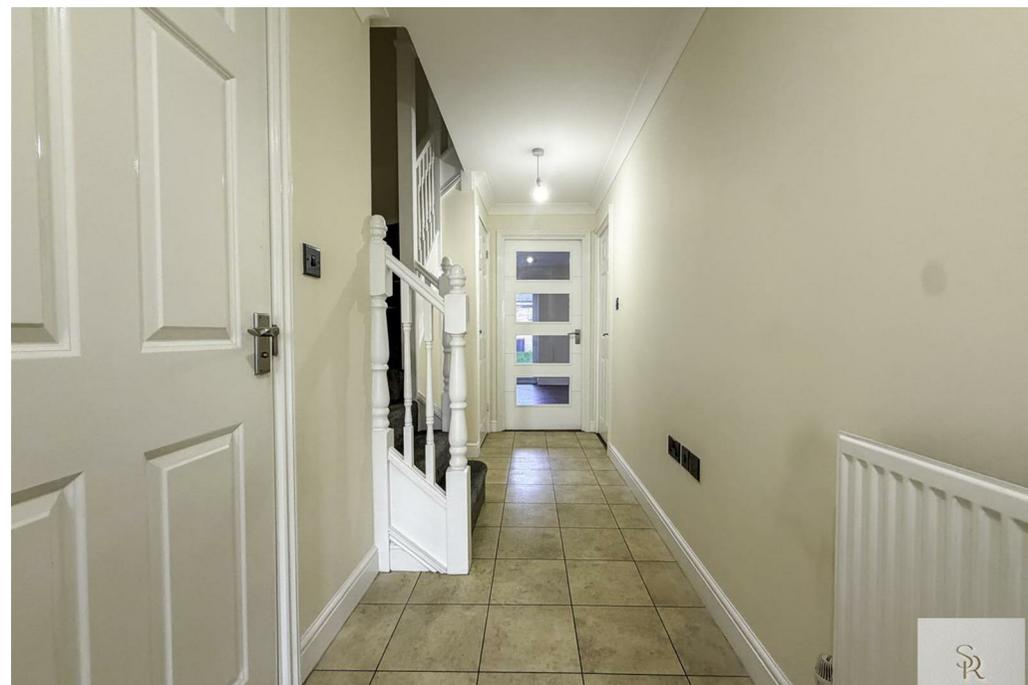

Arranged across three beautifully proportioned floors, the property has been thoughtfully designed to balance architectural presence with modern family living. The ground floor centres around a generous open-plan kitchen and breakfast room, forming the heart of the home and providing an ideal setting for both everyday life and entertaining. To the rear, a full-width lounge spans the property, with elegant French doors opening onto a professionally landscaped garden, curated for low-maintenance enjoyment and complemented by a detached garage, practicality delivered without compromise.

The first floor introduces a truly captivating feature: a full-width waterside sitting room with private balcony overlooking the Grand Union Canal. Flooded with natural light and framed by uninterrupted views, this space is both calming and impressive, equally suited to quiet mornings with coffee as it is to relaxed evenings watching the reflections across the water. Two further double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom complete this level.

The top floor provides two substantial bedrooms, including a front-facing double with Juliet balcony capturing elevated canal views, and an expansive rear principal suite with a luxurious four-piece en-suite bathroom. Generous in scale and beautifully balanced, this upper level offers privacy and comfort in equal measure.

Step beyond the front door and directly onto the towpath, with picturesque walks stretching towards Berkhamsted, passing waterside cafés, bistros and independent stops along the way. Restaurants, coffee shops and the mainline station are all within easy reach, blending peaceful canal-side living with exceptional everyday convenience.

A rare opportunity to acquire a refined waterside residence in one of the area's most sought-after locations. Internal viewing is highly advised to fully appreciate the setting, proportions and lifestyle on offer.
