To the front, the kitchen/dining room serves as the social heart of the home, featuring a deep bay window that floods the space with natural light and ample room for a family-sized dining table. The spacious sitting room is positioned at the rear to take full advantage of the garden views, centered around a focal fireplace and featuring double glazed doors that transition seamlessly onto the sun deck. Completing the ground floor is the integral garage, which has been intelligently designed to include a dedicated utility zone with a secondary sink and plumbing, accessible directly from the main hallway.

Ascending to the first floor, the landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms and the family bathroom. The primary bedroom is a generous double overlooking the rear gardens, boasting a private en-suite shower room with a walk-in cubicle. Two further double bedrooms offer flexible space for children or guests—one of which is situated over the garage—while the fourth bedroom serves perfectly as a dedicated home office or nursery.
