LongDescription

The property provides a spacious 2/3 bedroom detached cottage in a tucked away position with the opportunity to extend or convert the outbuildings (subject to planning consent) to provide a characterful detached home on a generous plot.

The property is full of historic features with exposed timber beams, exposed stone & brick walls and an inglenook fireplace in the main sitting room. There is a spacious kitchen, which would benefit from being updated and features exposed brick and timber walls with beams and a gas Rayburn installed.

Downstairs there is a dining room, which could be used as an additional bedroom if desired with an outbuilding adjacent, providing potential for additional accommodation (subject to necessary consents).

Upstairs there are two spacious double bedrooms, both with built in wardrobes and a family bathroom.

At the front there is a very spacious lean-to utility room with downstairs cloakroom and front entrance lobby.

Outside at the front a gravelled driveway provides parking for multiple vehicles. There are two areas of garden separated by hedging, to the side and rear, both providing mature level lawned gardens with mature shrubs and trees.

Services: Mains electricity, water, and drainage with gas connected.

Tenure: Freehold

Council Tax: C

Local Authority: Mid Devon District Council

The property is situated in a very private position, tucked away down a private drive, a short walk from the village centre, with a good range of local amenities, including a popular primary school, and the renowned secondary school, Uffculme School, Ofsted rated 'Good' or 'Outstanding' in all areas.

There is a local pub, mini market, a doctors' surgery, veterinary practice, a large village hall and community playing fields. Regular bus services run through the village and the market towns of Tiverton and Cullompton are a short drive away. Via the motorway, Exeter and Taunton are within easy reach, as well as Tiverton, with the popular Blundell's School and Petroc College of Further and Higher education. Tiverton Parkway train station is 10 minutes away and offers a fast service into London and Bristol.
