The village is known for St Peters Chapel, one of the earliest chapels still in use in England, its pre WW2 airfield and decommissioned nuclear power station. Bradwell Marina is situated on the Blackwater estuary and is ideally placed with easy access to Essex Rivers and cruising to the French, Dutch and Belgium coasts and benefits from a restaurant which is open to the public. There is also a separate utility room, offering useful storage to both sides and a door providing direct access to the rear garden. A downstairs cloakroom adds further practicality.
