PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Pier House offers a superb and rare opportunity to purchase a sizable, four storey, three /four bedroom, end of terrace property situated within a prime location, in the heart of old St Ives.

The property offers stunning views of the Harbour, and nearby beaches, with the added benefit of a commercial premises on the ground floor which is currently tenanted and run as a successful coffee shop.

LOCATION

St Ives is a picturesque seaside town on the north coast of Cornwall, England, celebrated for its golden beaches, clear turquoise waters, and thriving artistic community. Tucked into a sheltered bay, the town winds around a working harbour, where fishing boats bob on the tide and narrow, cobbled streets lead to galleries, shops, and historic pubs.

Known for its exceptional natural light, St Ives has long drawn artists from around the world, earning a reputation as one of the UK's most important creative hubs. The town is home to Tate St Ives, the Barbara Hepworth Museum and Sculpture Garden, and the Leach Pottery, among many other art spaces.

Its six beaches—including Porthmeor, Porthminster, and the Harbour Beach—offer something for everyone, from surfing and paddleboarding to peaceful sunbathing and coastal walks. The South West Coast Path runs through the area, offering breathtaking cliffside views and access to nearby nature reserves and coves.

Despite its small size, St Ives is rich in history, dating back to the medieval period as a fishing village and maritime port. Today, it blends historic charm with contemporary culture, attracting visitors for its food, scenery, creativity, and laid-back coastal lifestyle.
