Church Fenton Lane, Ulleskelf

Guide Price £500,000

5 2 3

From the outside, Pelile Ndaba looks like a modest bungalow – but step inside and you’ll find a beautifully reimagined home that’s full of surprises.

The name, taken from the Ndebele language of Zimbabwe, means “where your troubles end” – and it couldn’t be more fitting. Behind the front door lies a large central reception hall leading to an impressive open-plan living kitchen with solid wood work surfaces, a central island with touch-control hob, and integrated appliances, plus a separate utility room.

The generous lounge features a multi-fuel stove, while the newly rebuilt garden room opens directly onto the garden. There are five bedrooms in total (bedroom five currently used as a home office), including a master suite with dressing area and en-suite, and a stylish family bathroom.

Outside, there’s off-street parking, a garage, an EV charge point and a private garden complete with an outdoor bar – in true South African style.

Situated in the ever-popular village of Ulleskelf, with shop, post office, and train links to York and Leeds, plus Tadcaster Grammar School catchment – this really is where your troubles end.
