The Location

The property is situated within the Bransdale area of the North York Moors National Park and is 10 miles from the popular market towns of Helmsley and Kirkbymoorside where local amenities are available. The closest primary school is in Gillamoor.

This property is part of the National Trust's Bransdale Estate, which came to the Trust in the 1970s. Bransdale comprises a number of let farms and cottages and an impressive 19th century shooting lodge, with the Trust's landholding extending to some 1960 acres. Agriculture and field sports are the main sources of employment in the area, although some tenants work from home and others commute to workplaces elsewhere.

“The Dale” is a place of discovery. Within the Dale a series of rights of way provide walkers with a chance to experience the tranquility and intimacy of the valley in contrast to the surrounding open moorland.

The National Trust

The National Trust is Europe's leading conservation charity, and is committed to preserving special places for ever, for everyone. The Trust depends on the income it generates from its rental properties, and it could not deliver its core objectives without the support of its thousands of tenants and volunteers.

As a tenant of the National Trust, you'll receive a free 'tenant pass' throughout the duration of your tenancy. This means that you, your children (under 18) and one other adult can visit the places we care for, for free. You'll also receive a National Trust Handbook to help you plan your days out, a copy of the National Trust Magazine and a free parking permit for when you visit us.

It's important to know that the income we make from the places we let plays an essential role in funding our conservation work. It protects nature, beauty and history for generations to come.
