Stonewater Cottage Town End

Apperknowle

Guide price £750,000 - £775,000

This truly outstanding four bedroomed detached cottage has been stylishly refurbished and thoughtfully re-imagined creating a stunning home equally ideal for a family or couple.

This impressive property stands within the highly sought after village of Apperknowle which affords excellent access to the nearby town of Dronfield with its comprehensive range of amenities and train station with there being excellent transportation links to Chesterfield, Sheffield, motorway network and the Peak District National Park.

The comprehensive scheme of refurbishment has successfully blended many lovely period features with modern up to date appointments and includes a new roof, full rear extension, new windows and doors, re-plastering, re-wiring, new central heating system along with re-decoration and flooring. All the fittings have also been replaced including new kitchen and bathrooms.

The spacious and surprisingly light interior is completed by a driveway leading in which provides ample parking for several vehicles and an appealing garden which includes stone flagged patio, lawn and childrens play area.

Reception hall, impressive open plan living/dining kitchen/family room with a herringbone oak floor and extensive range of quartz topped units including central island. This area opens through and flows into the adjacent sitting room which is an extension to the original dwelling and has twin sets of bi-fold doors. Nicely proportioned living room which is set away from the principle daytime living space. Inner lobby with downstairs WC, utility and rear porch. First floor landing, four double bedrooms with the master bedroom having a superb en-suite bathroom and there also being a family/guest shower room.
