Property Details

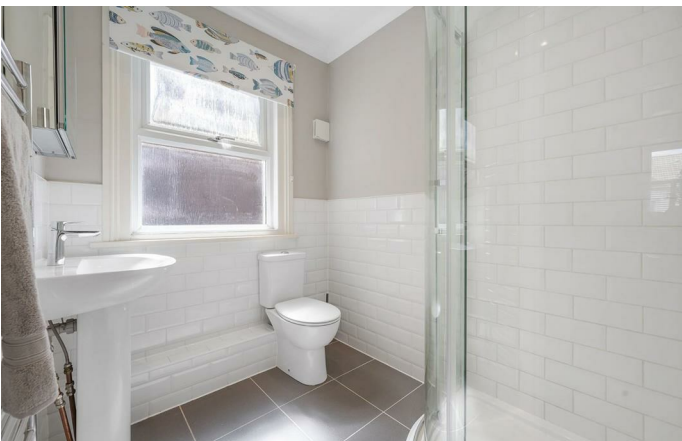

Beautifully presented, this impressive three double bedroom, three bathroom split-level Victorian conversion is arranged over the upper floors of a charming period property. A private internal staircase rises from the entrance to the first floor, where the split-level layout creates an excellent sense of privacy between the sociable living spaces and peaceful bedroom accommodation above. Occupying the full width of the property, the elegant reception room boasts numerous sash windows, impressive high ceilings, a feature fireplace, bespoke built-in cabinetry and sleek flooring. To the rear, the semi-open plan kitchen is fitted with striking sea green cabinetry, contrasting dark worktops and a subway-tiled splashback, with ample space to dine. Also on this floor is a generous double bedroom overlooking greenery and a contemporary shower room. Upstairs, the principal bedroom enjoys built-in wardrobes and an en-suite shower room, whilst a further spacious double bedroom benefits from bespoke storage, a dedicated study area and access to eaves storage. A stylish family bathroom completes this exceptional home.
