Property Introduction

Requiring a degree of modernisation, this two bedroom ground floor flat offers a great opportunity for someone to carry out improvements and make it their home.

Internally there is a spacious living room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

There is a useful block built store to the rear and a lawned garden to the front.

Unrestricted street parking can be found nearby.

We feel this makes a great first time buy.

This property is being sold with a Section 157 restriction that requires buyers to have lived or worked in Cornwall for the last three years.

NO CHAIN SALE!

Location

Pendeen is near the coast and has a historic reputation for smuggling activities, it is also near the World famous Geevor tin mine. The South West Coast Path is less than a mile away in addition to a number of local footpaths for exploring the surrounding country side and rugged coastline in this area of outstanding natural beauty.

St Just lies three miles away and has a wide range of retail outlets along with primary and secondary schooling, a doctor's surgery and Cape Cornwall Golf Club with its spectacular scenery and eighteen hole golf course.

Penzance, the largest town in West Cornwall lies approximately eight miles away, here you will find the mainline railway and a wide range of retail outlets, along with a beautiful promenade which takes in the stunning sea views over Mount's Bay.
