GUIDE PRICE: £160,000 - £180,000

Ground floor living, garden access and no onward chain.

Retirement living just got an upgrade.

Set within the ever-popular Brackendale Court in Basildon, this well-presented two bedroom maisonette is designed exclusively for the over 55's and offers a comfortable, low-maintenance lifestyle in a peaceful setting.

Step inside and you're welcomed by a bright entrance hallway that leads through to a lovely size lounge/diner, where French doors open directly onto the communal gardens. It's the kind of space that naturally invites a morning coffee in the fresh air or a quiet afternoon with a good book.

The kitchen is a great size and thoughtfully arranged, offering everything needed for day-to-day living without compromise. Two well-proportioned bedrooms provide flexibility for guests, hobbies or simply having that extra bit of space, all served by a bathroom.

Outside, the communal gardens offer a calm and sociable environment, while parking facilities add that extra layer of everyday convenience.

With no onward chain to slow things down, this is a home that makes moving simple and living easy, all within a well-connected Basildon location.
