Situated on the popular Parklands Park in Evesham, this well-proportioned two-bedroom park home occupies a generous plot and offers comfortable, low-maintenance single-storey living. The property has been recently refurbished and features a spacious and light-filled lounge/dining room with bay window and feature fireplace, alongside a modernised kitchen fitted with stylish shaker-style units and ample worktop space, with direct access outside. There are two good-sized bedrooms and a contemporary shower room with curved glass enclosure. Externally, the home benefits from low-maintenance gardens, providing excellent outdoor space and scope for further enhancement. A private driveway offers convenient off-street parking. Ideally positioned within a peaceful residential park, yet within easy reach of Evesham town centre and its range of amenities.
