Lower Brailes is situated in South Warwickshire, close to the North Oxfordshire border; although in Warwickshire, the postal address for the village is Lower Brailes, Nr Banbury, Oxfordshire. Within the adjoining villages of Upper and Lower Brailes there are a variety of shops and stores including a butcher, general stores, post office and newsagents. The local town of Shipston on Stour has a more comprehensive range of facilities. Junctions 11 and 15 of the M40 Motorway are at Banbury and Warwick respectively, with main line railway stations at Banbury and Moreton in Marsh with excellent services to Oxford, London and Birmingham.

Park View comprises an attached period cottage, located towards the end of a quiet no through lane, with easy access to open countryside. The property offers balanced accommodation with oil fired central heating and a delightful enclosed rear garden.
