The bungalow is located in the popular village of Stoke Canon, with a range of amenities, including a Public House, a local corner shop, a well-regarded primary school, and a church. The city of Exeter lies approximately 5 miles away, offering fantastic access to travel links such as the M5 & A30, Exeter Airport & St Davids Train Station with connections to Paddington & Waterloo.

The property requires modernisation throughout and offers versatile living accommodation comprising an entrance hall, a spacious living/dining room, an open-plan kitchen/breakfast room, a utility room, a second reception/garden room, two double bedrooms, and a bathroom.
