

Rampayne Street, SW1V

£650,000

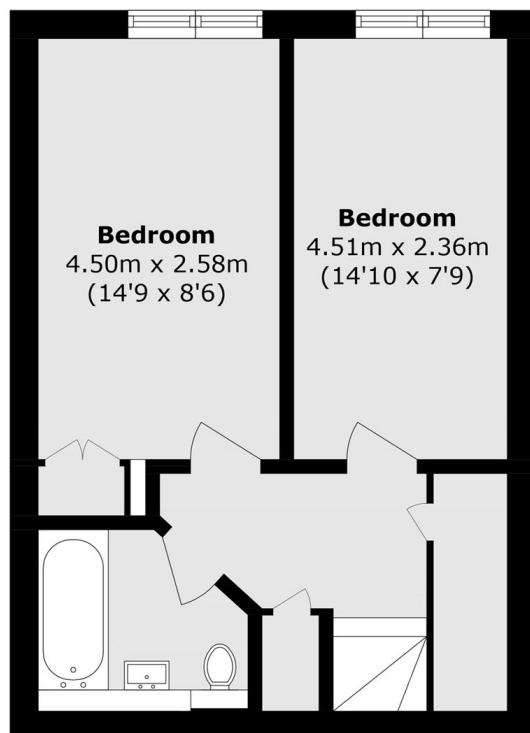

A beautifully presented two-bedroom split-level maisonette with its own private entrance, ideally located in the heart of Pimlico. Offering over 760 square feet of generous living space, excellent natural light and a large private garden, the property provides a peaceful and private retreat, moments from the amenities and transport links of Pimlico and Victoria. The property is in pristine condition throughout, with a newly refurbished bathroom, excellent storage and a spacious open-plan kitchen/living space. Large south-east-facing windows flood the room with natural light, creating a fantastic space for entertaining. There are also two well-proportioned double bedrooms, making the property equally suited to couples, young families or those looking for a home office.

The property forms part of the well-regarded Lillington Gardens development, celebrated for its distinctive red-brick architecture, green spaces and strong sense of community. Nearest public transport can be found close by at Pimlico Underground Station or Victoria Underground, mainline, bus and coach stations providing direct access to The City, West End, Gatwick Airport and beyond.
