This property dates back to the early 1700s and is of timber frame and clay lump construction on a brick base. The porch with decorative glazing is a Victorian addition. It's been given Grade II listed status as it's an early and unusually unaltered example of a symmetrical house typical of the area.

For Equestrian enthusiasts, the property benefits from outbuildings one of which has three large stables/ stalls - the current owner rents 2 acres of flat level pasture to the rear of the property with water laid on - this is accessed through the five bar gate to the rear and further land may be available to rent for new owners. There are many accessible bridleways and great hacking direct from the property.

The property itself is remarkably untouched and the layout bears this out, on the ground floor there are two good sized reception rooms to the front with a central staircase which splits taking you up to the bedrooms either side.

KEY FEATURES

There is a more recent flat roofed extension which houses the kitchen and bathroom. The other rear corner has been rebuilt in clay lump awaiting further works.

Any would be buyer will need to work closely with the Conservation Officer throughout the process of renovation to ensure that any works are in keeping.

The plot here extends to over one third of an acre (stms) and backs onto open fields stretching out before you. The vendor currently rents approximately 2 acres of pasture to the rear. The house itself is set well back from the road, with plenty of room for parking.

The Static Caravan currently onsite may be included if required, it has water and power connected.

Hinderclay is a lively village with an active parish council. The village hall hosts regular clubs and events including Brownies, yoga, coffee mornings, bingo and a garden club. There's also a beautiful Norman church and there are woodlands and fishing lakes found nearby. You're only two miles from Botesdale and Rickinghall with plenty of amenities including a pub and shop, as well as being close to Redgrave and Lopham Fen.
