Despite its quiet setting, the apartment is exceptionally well connected, with the DLR, Elizabeth Line, bus routes and cycle paths all within easy reach, making commuting across London and into Canary Wharf simple and convenient.

The accommodation is notably spacious throughout, with a generously sized entrance hall featuring a versatile recessed area that is currently used as a home office. This practical space is ideal for those working remotely and provides separation from the main living area.

Built only a few years ago, the apartment remains in excellent condition throughout.
