Hallam Grange The Spinney Ilkeston DE7 4LZ

A truly exceptional and one-of-a-kind residence, tucked away in a secluded setting surrounded by woodland and extensive mature gardens. Approached via a gated entrance there is an attractive sweeping circular driveway, this impressive home makes a striking first impression, offering both privacy and grandeur.

The accommodation includes an entrance porch leading into a magnificent reception hallway with a beautiful stained-glass picture window and window seat, full of original character.

The formal dining room features another attractive picture window, while double doors open into a delightful sun lounge with breathtaking garden views.

A spacious lounge boasts an impressive picture window flooding the room with natural light, complemented by a cosy second reception room. The ground floor also includes a generous fitted kitchen, utility room, downstairs WC, side entrance porch, and useful external store and outside W.C.

Upstairs, a beautiful galleried landing with an impressive stained-glass window on the staircase leads to the principal bedroom, filled with natural light and fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom benefits from an en-suite, while two additional bedrooms and a family bathroom complete the first floor.

The grounds are equally impressive, featuring a substantial detached garage with workshop and storage space, an adjoining glass greenhouse, and a generous patio overlooking the gardens. Steps lead to a formal lawn bordered by mature trees and planting, with your own private woodland alive with wildlife a peaceful retreat.

Dating back to approximately 1913, this home is full of charm, character, and original features. Offering scope for sympathetic modernisation, it presents a rare opportunity to create a stunning family home while preserving its timeless elegance. Properties of this calibre, with such privacy, grounds, and potential, are exceptionally rare on the market.
