Description

Step inside and the sense of space is immediate. The front reception room features a classic bay window, while to the rear, a stunning through lounge provides a generous and naturally light space for everyday living and entertaining. The adjoining kitchen and separate utility room create a practical and well connected layout. Upstairs, the first floor offers four well proportioned bedrooms, providing flexibility for family living, guests or working from home. The top floor is a real highlight, with a substantial loft room or guest bedroom and useful eaves storage, creating a private additional space. Outside, the property benefits from ample off road parking, an integral garage and a sunny, secluded rear garden with a large paved terrace. Set on a quiet, established road, the home is also ideally located for highly regarded schools, Worcester Park High Street and the station, offering swift access to Central London.

Worcester Park is located on the borders of Surrey & South West London. Located just 10 miles from Central London, Worcester Park is an ideal destination for commuters, with a direct Zone 4 rail link to London's Waterloo via Clapham Junction & Wimbledon in under 30 minutes and departing every 15 minutes. Worcester Park is located just off the A3, which offers road links to Central London, the M25 and both of London's Gatwick & Heathrow Airports. Local bus services will get you to Morden's Northern Line Station in approx. 15 minutes. Worcester Park's attractive & bustling High Street with a number of shops and a great selection of restaurants and pubs alike. Young families are attracted to Worcester Park's plethora of high performing schools and no less than seven parks including the vast and picturesque Nonsuch Park, formally the site of Henry VIII's Nonsuch Palace.
